Get to know me

I am a reliable and hardworking professional with a strong background in cleaning, security, and management. Currently working long 12-hour shifts with an extended daily commute, I am seeking a role closer to home to improve my work-life balance and allow more time to pursue my long-term goal of becoming a Junior Web Developer. I take pride in maintaining high standards of performance and bring a proactive, responsible approach to every role I undertake. My experience includes team management, operation of industrial equipment, and providing support for children with additional needs — all of which have strengthened my adaptability, empathy, and attention to detail. I'm now looking for an opportunity where I can contribute locally while continuing to invest in my professional growth.
